Business opportunities at IIFF 2024

Footwear Sector: India is Second Largest footwear Manufacturer after China , with Annual Production of over 3.2 Billion pairs. India is also the Second Largest Consumer of footwear after China. In India 90% of footwear manufacturing is Non-Leather Footwear and it is growing in vast nature. The Indian footwear Value Chain is able to enhance its quality and at the same time, gradually align with International quality standards followed by Global Brands.

The Indian Non Leather Footwear Industry is the largest Domestic Shoe Manufacturing Unit and now they are ready to export their product outside India to compete with China. India has an Phenomenal opportunity because global Leader are ready to Invest in Indian Footwear Market like, Nike, Adidas, Sketchers, Puma etc.

Reasons of Growing Indian Footwear Industry are:

1. The Indian Footwear Industry is an employment intensive Sector, Providing job to about 6 Million Peoples, Mostly from the Weaker Section of the society.
2. Trained/Skilled manpower at competitive wage levels
3. Design Development Initiatives by Footwear Clusters
4. Increasing Use of quality components
5. Economic Size of Manufacturing units
