

Dear Mr. Vashist,

ClearTrail Technologies would like to congratulate ITPO on successful hosting of India International Security Expo 2017.

It was indeed a pleasure to be associated with this event as an exhibitor and to interact with experts from homeland security.

While we appreciate this exhibition as a good platform to showcase a wide range of security products and state-of-art technology, however it would have been much relevant for exhibitors as well as visitors, if the event was organized thematically by segregating product categories.

We are confident that our submission would be generously considered while planning your next event to keep our association go long term.

Thanks for the wonderful coordination and support extended by you and your team during the exhibition.

Regards,

Piyush Shrivastava
