| 3 | ITPO/RTI/08/03/2017 | The Hall of Nations complex in Pragati Maidan was demolished recently in spite of the fact that Indian Institute of Architects, International Union of Architects and thousands of prominent architects in India as well as abroad made a plea to stop demolition of the modern heritage building. I would like to know, under RTI, who is responsible for issuing the orders to demolish the Hall of Nations? Is it your own organization who decided to demolish the complex or was it carried out with any specific direction by any other governmental body other than ITPO? | The Hall of Nations (Hall no.6) at Pragati Maidan was not classified as heritage building. Further, the Heritage Conservation Committee (HCC) meeting held on 2.2.2017 decided the criteria that the buildings to be included in the modern Heritage Buildings list should be at least 60 years old. The hall of Nations (Hall no. 6) building was constructed in 1972. The competent authority has approved the Re-development of Integrated Exhibition cum Convention Centre (IECC) in March, 2017 which inter alia, included the demolition of existing building and structures including the Hall of Nations. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
